

OSWEGO COUNTY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION
DIGITAL BANKING AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURE

This Agreement and Disclosure provides information about Oswego County Federal Credit Union's Digital Banking (Mobile and Online Banking), Bill Payer Agreement, and the disclosures required by the Electronic Funds Transfer Act. For the purpose of this document, "we", "us", and "Credit Union", shall refer to Oswego County Federal Credit Union.

Digital Banking Agreement

This Agreement contains the terms and conditions governing Digital Banking (Online and Mobile). To enroll in the services, it will be necessary for you to acknowledge that you have received and read this Agreement and agree to its terms and conditions by checking the box located next to "I agree" below this electronic document. This action also acknowledges that this Agreement has been accepted by you.

Eligibility

You are eligible to use Digital Banking (Mobile and Online Banking) if you have, at minimum, one open and active regular share account with a minimum balance of $5.00 with Oswego County Federal Credit Union. You must have an open and active share draft (checking) account to use Bill Pay. You will need access to the Internet through your computer or other web browser-enabled device.

Account Access

Your share and share draft accounts and loan accounts may be accessed for Mobile and Online Banking and Bill Pay services. Some accounts may have transactional limitations and all accounts are subject to our Membership and Account Agreement. Your accounts may be accessed online by using a logon and password, which you will set.

Types of available transactions

You may use your password to process the following requests and transactions on your account(s):

1. Account balance and transaction history
2. Transfer funds between your share and checking accounts. You may also transfer funds from your account to accounts other than your own, provided that you have requested the ability to do so with us.
3. Make loan payments from your share or checking accounts.
4. Request that a check be mailed to your address that we have on file for a loan advance on your line of credit or HELOC, or for a withdrawal from your share or checking accounts.

5. Inquire about dividends/interest earned and loan interest paid for both the current year and prior year.
6. Obtain Check images
7. Email messages to the Credit Union, however, email may not be used to initiate transactions on your account(s).
8. Obtain Statements
9. Access new account, loan and mortgage applications.

Limitation on Frequency and Dollar Amount of Transactions

There is no limit to the number of transfers that you make between your accounts. You may make an unlimited number of loan payment transfers between your Accounts. There is no limit on the dollar amount you may transfer between Accounts, provided that your available balances are sufficient to cover those transfers and your Share (Savings) Account does not fall below the minimum balance required. If a hold has been placed on deposits made to an account from which you wish to transfer funds, you cannot transfer the portion of the funds held until the hold expires. See our "Funds Availability Policy Disclosure" for information regarding when holds may be placed on deposits.

Hardware and Software Responsibilities

You are responsible for selectin all systems, hardware and your Internet Service Provider. You are also responsible for an defect, malfunction or interruption in service or security due to hardware failure, your choice of Internet service provider and systems and computer services.

Password and Security

As part of our enrollment process, you will be required to select a password to access Mobile and Online services. Your Password has the same effect as your signature authorizing transactions. You agree to safely keep your Password, not to record your Password or otherwise disclose or make your Password available to anyone other than authorized users of your accounts. Anyone to whom you disclose your Password and anyone who has access to your Password will have full access to the services you perform with Digital Banking, including full access to your accounts. You have no ability to limit any such person's authority. If anyone uses your Password with your permission, you will be responsible for any transactions performed by that person.

Electronic Records and Signatures

If you opened or use your account by means of Oswego County FCU's website, you agree that the following information may be transmitted to you electronically if such information becomes available in an electronic format: periodic account statements, loan agreements and any other information that we are required to provide you with respect to your account.

You agree: (a) That a signature, contract or other record relating to your Credit Union account may not be denied legal effect, validity or enforceability solely because it is in electronic form, and; (b) A contract relating to such transaction may not be denied legal effect, validity or enforceability solely because an electronic signature or electronic record was used in its formation. (c) You have the right to withdraw your consent to accept electronic records or signatures.

To withdraw consent, you must submit a written request to Oswego County Federal Credit Union, 90 East Bridge St, PO Box 310, Oswego, NY 13126

Your Liability

Reporting Unauthorized Transactions

You should notify us immediately if you believe your Username or Password have been lost or stolen, that someone has gained access to the secure information, or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your Account without your permission or if you suspect any fraudulent activity on your Account. To notify us, contact us at 315.343.7822.

Bill Pay Service

Oswego County Federal Credit Union's Bill Pay service allows you to schedule bill payments through the Credit Union's Digital Banking (Mobile and Online Banking). You can arrange, at your option, for the payment of your current, future, and reoccurring bills from your OCFCU share draft account. There is no limit to the number of payments that may be authorized. We cannot process payments to federal, state, or local government agencies or courts.

By furnishing us and /or our bill paying agent with the names of your payees/merchants and their address, you authorize us and/or our bill paying agent to follow the payment instructions to these payees/merchants that you provide us and/or our bill paying agent via the Bill Pay service. When you schedule a bill payment for processing, funds will be remitted from your designated share draft account. However, we will not be obligated to make any such payment unless your account has sufficient funds or credit available to pay the bill at that time. Funds for electronic bill payments, will be withdrawn from your account the day before the processing date you specify. Funds for check bill payments, will be withdrawn from your account when the payee processes the payment.

Scheduled Payments

You understand that, when possible, payments will be made electronically; however due to vendor or payee's requirements, some will be made by written and mailed check. For payments made by check, you must schedule the payment at least 5 full business days prior to the date the payment is due at your payee to allow for paper delivery in a timely manner. For payments made electronically, you must schedule your payments at least 2 full business days prior to the date the payments are due. Any payment made with Bill Pay requires sufficient time for your payee to credit your account properly. The Credit Union will not be responsible for costs, charges, liabilities, or other consequences arising from late payments occurring as a result of your scheduling of payments or as a result of insufficient funds in your account.

Third Party Vendor

Oswego County Federal Credit Union contracts with a third-party vendor to assist in the completion of your payment instructions. The Credit Union reserves the right to substitute agents and will advise you how to contact the substitute agent if that becomes necessary.

Stop Payments of Electronic Funds Transfer

If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account; you can stop any of these payments. You may do this online; or call us at 1.315.343.7822. We may also require that you put your request in writing and get it to us within 14 days after you set up the stop payment online or call us. Please refer to the Credit Union Master Disclosure for all updated and applicable fees and charges. If you order us to stop one of these payments 1 business day or more before the transfer is scheduled and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

You may also write us at Oswego County Federal Credit Union, PO Box 310, Oswego, NY 13126 in time for us to receive your request before the payment is scheduled to be made or the check clears your account.

Liability Regarding Payment

We shall not be responsible for any charges imposed or any other action taken by a payee who refuses the payment for any reason or resulting from a payment that you have not scheduled properly, including any applicable finance charge and late fees. In addition, we will not be liable if there are insufficient funds or credit available in your designated payment account; if you provide incorrect or incomplete payee information; changes of merchant address or account number; the failure of any merchant to account correctly for the payment in a timely manner; if a legal order directs us to prohibit withdrawals from the payment account; if the payment account is closed or frozen; or if any part of the electronic funds transfer system is not working properly; or for any other circumstance beyond the control of the Credit Union. We will not be liable for indirect, special, or consequential damages arising out of the use of the Bill Pay service.

Fees and Charges

Transactions involving your account(s) via Home Banking/Teller-Phone are considered the same as any other transaction with regard to service charges, overdrafts and other fees, terms and conditions as set forth in your account agreement(s).

Overdrafts

When you schedule a funds transfer using Digital Banking (Online and Mobile), you authorize us to withdraw the necessary funds from your account with us. We deduct the amount of your funds transfer from your account on the date we process your instruction. Each instruction to us to withdraw or transfer from an account is an order to us to pay from that account at that time or on a later date, if any, indicated in the instruction. At our discretion we may charge payments against the account even though the charge creates an overdraft, or we may refuse to make payments if the charge creates an overdraft. If you overdraw your account, you agree to immediately pay us the overdrawn amount, together with any applicable fees.

Our Liability for Failure to Make Funds Transfers

If you have given us all the proper and timely instructions and have properly completed all fields to complete a transfer, and we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, subject to the limitations in this Agreement, we will be liable for your losses or damages proximately caused by our failure. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable to you if, among other things: a) Through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer, prevent the transfer or use of Digital Banking, and we have taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances, b) You have not properly followed the instructions for using Digital Banking, c) Your operating system is not properly installed or functioning properly, d) An error or failure resulted from any malfunctions of your browser, Internet service provider or computer, computer virus or other problems relating to the computer equipment you use with Digital Banking, including, without limitation, your inability to access Digital Banking or any part of the services, e) The failure was the result of inaccessibility due to a Digital Banking system failure.

Non-Owner Cross Account Transfers

Oswego County Federal Credit Union may allow you to transfer funds into another member's account such as a spouse or children's provided that you have entered into an agreement with us to do so. However, it does not allow you to access the destination account information. These transfers are permitted to any account (unless otherwise restricted) as established within the membership account structure. The Credit Union reserves the right at any time to restrict or prohibit transfer capabilities on certain types of accounts. You will not be able to withdraw funds or access information from the account unless you are an authorized signer/owner of that account.

Periodic Statements

Your Digital Banking transactional activity will appear on your periodic account statement. If there are no Regulation E related electronic transactions in a particular month, you will receive statements at least quarterly.

Hardware and Software Requirements

The following hardware & software are required for access to & retention of your information electronically. For best results, your system should meet the following minimum requirements:

consent to receive your information electronically without the imposition of any fees for the withdrawal of consent and without the imposition of any other conditions or consequences. You must consent to continue to receive your information electronically after such hardware and/or software change in the same manner in which you must initially consent to receive your information electronically under this Agreement.

System Unavailability

Access to Oswego County Federal Credit Union's Digital Banking may be unavailable at times for the following reasons: (1) Scheduled Maintenance - there will be necessary periods when systems require maintenance or upgrades; (2) Unscheduled Maintenance – Digital Banking may be unavailable when unforeseen maintenance is necessary; (3) System Outages - major unforeseen events, such as, but not limited to, earthquakes, fires, floods, computer failures, interruptions in telephone service, or electrical outages, may cause system unavailability; or, (4) Internet Service Provider - failure by or unavailability of an Internet Service Provider. We will make all reasonable efforts to ensure the availability of Digital Banking; however, we are in no way liable for system unavailability or any consequential damages that may result.

Termination of Digital Banking Services

In the event you wish to discontinue your Digital Banking services, you must notify us in writing us at Oswego County Federal Credit Union, PO Box 310, Oswego, NY 13126 or call Member Services at 315.343.7822. If you notify us verbally, you must also send us written notification within ten (10) days. We may modify, suspend or terminate your privilege of using Digital Banking and may withhold approval of any transaction, at any time, without prior notice to you. In the event we terminate your Digital Banking services, we will try to notify you in advance but are not required to do so. You will be notified as soon as practicable. Any one person who can use the account accessible with Digital Banking may terminate the services. Termination shall not affect the rights and obligations of the parties for transactions made with Digital Banking before we have had a reasonable time to respond to your termination request. Your termination of Digital Banking will automatically terminate any pending transfers and payments.

Amendment

We may amend this Agreement at any time. Notice will be sent to you at your current address in our files. Amendments will be effective upon the date indicated in the notice.

Conflict of Provisions

This Agreement is intended to supplement and not to replace other agreements between you and us relating to your accounts, including, without limitation, our member Account Agreement and Disclosures. In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and any other account rules and agreements that apply to your accounts, this Agreement shall govern and prevail, unless otherwise specified in this Agreement.

Enforcement

You are liable to us for any loss, cost, or expense we incur as a result from your failure to follow this agreement. You authorize us to deduct any such loss, costs, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. If we bring legal action to collect any amount due under or to enforce this Agreement, we shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment of reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings and any post-judgment collection actions.

Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the bylaws of the Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, the laws of the State of New York, and local clearinghouse rules, as amended from time to time. Any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court of the county in which the Credit Union is located.
